Java Woman Sentenced for Concealing Rich Treasure

BATAVIA, JAVA.—Carla Wolff, the slender Eurasian, who babbed that she would sleep in a gold bed, was sentenced to eight months' imprisonment for concealing $500,000 worth of the $5,000,000 Nakamura treasure for her Japanese paramour.

The fortune was stolen from residents of the Dutch East Indies during the Japanese occupation. Captain Nakamura, father of her children, turned over the $500,000 to her at the time of the Japanese surrender.

She said she had been looking very happy lately. Could this be due to outside interests? And speaking of happiness, Temple Paulette sure has a happy grin.

The S. C. A. has been sponsoring the March of Dimes drive at the school. The students have responded very well, but we're sure that with a little more work we can go lots farther.

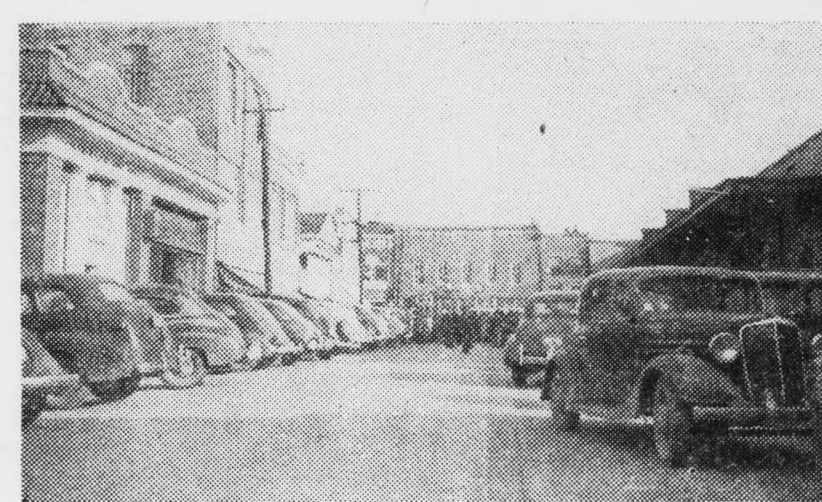

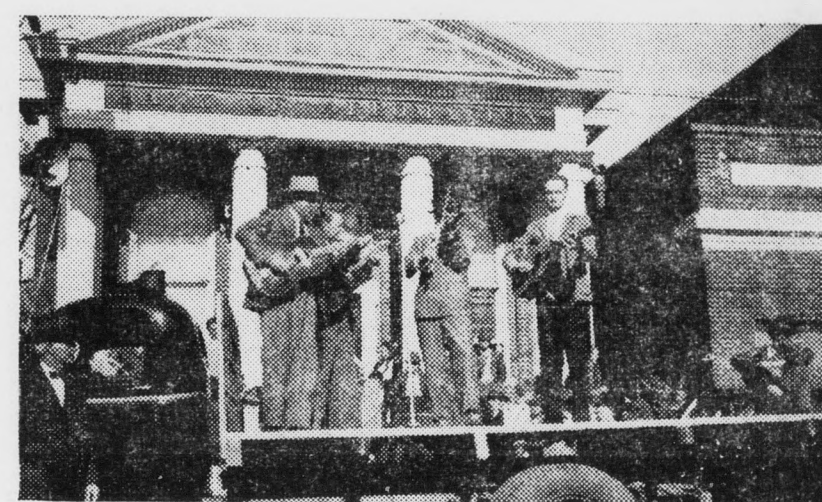

We'd like to take a few lines right here to pay a tribute to our principal, Mr. Crawley, who really appreciates all that you have done for us this year. We think you're swell!

Oh! The poor seniors have to suffer the agony of another test. "Why is it we have heard many of them ask, 'that our class catches the tests every year?'"

So long till next week—we'll be back with more news (and if the students keep up their present rate there will be more news than we can ever write).

APPOMATTOX GROWING ...

(One of a series)
In recent weeks we have been showing on our front page photos of new buildings in and around Appomattox. Appomattox is a growing town, that none can deny.

However, one of the major factors in a growing town is its business life.

It takes lots of shoppers to make a town hum.

And it takes plenty of alert and progressive stores and business establishments to draw and retain these shoppers.

And that's where Appomattox shines. Saturdays are crowded with shoppers. Crowds are parked far and near as you can see in one of the pictures published today, taken on a recent Saturday. Another photo shows a crowd gathered around a truck where hill-billy music is being served up, for free to entertain the week-end crowd.

Yes sir, meet your friends in old Appomattox, get good service at many modern stores, and profit by a visit to "a growing town."

METHODIST CHURCH

Circle No. 2 of the Woman's Society of Christian Service, of Memorial Church, will meet Tuesday, February 4th, at 7:30 P. M. at the home of Mrs. J. R. Lawson. Mrs. Wilbur McKeon will serve as joint hostess, and Miss Harriett Holley will be program leader. All members are requested to be present.

Oystermen say regulations hamper operations.

Funeral services were held from the grave in the Sweeney family cemetery Sunday at three o'clock. The Rev. D. M. Spence conducted the services. Active pallbearers included: Richard Sweeney, Harry Cyrus, Willie Phelps, Milton Cyrus, Alex Cyrus and Hunter Mayberry.

Dr. Dabney S. Lancaster, president, Farmville State Teachers College, and former State Superintendent of Public Instruction, will be the guest speaker of the evening.

Approximately 100 guests are expected to be present, representing Appomattox, Bedford and Campbell Counties, and the State Board of Education.

The tentative program follows: Invocation, Mr. W. C. Switzer.

Pebbles Shows That He's No Dummy

Problem pups don't exist if you believe Dorothy Eagles of a Chicago animal shelter. She has proved that a little love and care will make a pal of any dog. Here "Pebbles" passes psychiatric test and proves he's no dummy.
